Your Role & Responsibilities

As a Summit Ambassador, you are a go-to expert on the Summit Bechtel Reserve. This means you agree to:

- Build awareness: Share Summit programs through presentations (in person or virtual), table displays, and individual conversations
- Drive participation: Encourage units to consider high adventure, Scout Camp, and leadership training programs at the Summit

- Be a connector: Serve as a link to the national ambassador network and Summit program staff
- Represent the values: Model Adventure, Service, Sustainability, and Leadership in how you show up to each and every event

Performance Commitment

- Make at least three Summit promotions per year; a table display, a presentation, an article, or a Webinar all count
- Complete an after-action report for each promotion within two weeks of the event
- Stay current on Summit programs by reviewing updates regularly
- Coordinate with fellow Ambassadors in your council so major events are covered

- A sample presentation you can adapt for your own council or district event
- Talking points, F.A.Q.s, and an Ambassador Handbook
- An ambassador name badge and button
